Tyrone Middle School
6421 22nd Avenue No
St. Petersburg, FL 33710

SCOPE OF PROJECT: The Pinellas County School Board (the district) requests qualification statements from experienced and qualified firms or individuals to provide architectural design services

Scope of work: The project includes new construction, renovation, and remodeling of the existing Tyrone Middle School campus which houses the Center for Innovation and Digital Learning (CIDL). CIDL is the District's premier, technology focused middle school where students inquire and explore simulation, artificial intelligence, and virtual reality in a project-based, blended learning environment. The project's goal is to create a dynamic, state-of-the-art renovation that fosters collaborative creativity, innovation and invention where students utilize technology as a tool to enhance their learning experience in todays' world. When complete, this interconnected campus design should embody Tyrone's Innovation and Digital Learning theme with tech infrastructure and adaptive learning spaces supporting a 1:1 device initiative, classroom innovation and social interaction. See Scope of Work for specific building information.

Q What makes public notices in newspapers superior to other forms of notices?

A Public notices in newspapers are serendipitous. When readers page through a newspaper, they will find important public notice information they otherwise would not find anywhere else.

Rarely do consumers specifically search online for public notices.

Q&A

Q Are are the different types of legal notices?

A Simply put, there are two basic types - Warning Notices and Accountability Notices.

Warning notices inform you when government, or a private party authorized by the government, is about to do something that may affect your life, liberty or pursuit of happiness. Warning notices typically are published more than once over a certain period.

Accountability notices are designed to make sure citizens know details about their government. These notices generally are published one time, and are archived for everyone to see. Accountability is key to efficiency in government.
