NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION
(testate)
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR
COLLIER COUNTY, FLORIDA
PROBATE DIVISION
File No. File No.
2022-CP-000488-0001-XX
IN RE: ESTATE OF
CALVIN C. CHEAP,
Deceased.

The administration of the estate of CALVIN C. CHEAP, deceased, is pending in the Circuit Court for Collier County, Florida, Probate Division, the address of which is 3315 Tamiami Trail East, Naples, Florida 34112-5324. The file number for the estate is 2022-CP-000488-0001-XX. The estate is testate and the date of the decedent's will is December 29, 2000.

The names and addresses of the personal representative and the personal representative's attorney are set forth below. The fiduciary lawyer-client privilege in Florida Statutes Section 90.5021 applies with respect to the personal representative and any attorney employed by the personal representative.

Any interested person on whom a copy of the notice of administration is served must file with the court, on or before the date that is 3 months after the date of service of a copy of the Notice of Administration on that person, any objection that challenges the validity of the will or any codicils, venue, or jurisdiction of the court. The 3 month time period may only be extended for estoppel based upon a misstatement by the personal representative regarding the time period within which an objection must be filed. The time period may not be extended for any other reason, including affirmative representation, failure to disclose information, or misconduct by the personal representative or any other person. Unless sooner barred by section 733.212(3), Florida Statutes, all objections to the validity of a will or any codicils, venue or the jurisdiction of the court must be filed no later than the earlier of the entry of an order of final discharge of the personal representative or 1 year after service of the notice of administration.

Persons who may be entitled to exempt property under section 732.402, Florida Statutes, will be deemed to have waived their rights to claim that property as exempt property unless a petition for determination of exempt property is filed by such persons or on their behalf on or before the later of the date that is 4 months after the date of service of a copy of the notice of administration on such persons or the date that is 40 days after the date of termination of any proceedings involving the construction, admission to probate, or validity of the will or involving any other matter affecting any part of the exempt property.

Unless an extension is granted pursuant to section 732.2135(2), Florida Statutes, an election to take an elective share must be filed on or before the earlier of the date that is 6 months after the date of service of a copy of the notice of administration on the surviving spouse, an attorney in fact or a guardian of the property of the surviving spouse; or the date that is 2 years after the date of the decedent's death.

Under certain circumstances and by failing to contest the will, the recipient of this notice of administration may be waiving his or her right to contest the validity of a trust or other writing incorporated by reference into the will.

Decedent died testate on February 4, 2022, in Collier County, Florida. Her last will was executed on February 29, 2020. Such last will was admitted to probate and the two children of deceased appointed as personal representatives on March 3, 2022. The personal representatives of decedent's estate received their letters of administration on March 30, 2022.

ALL INTERESTED PERSONS ARE NOTIFIED THAT service of this notice bars objections that challenge: the will of the decedent admitted to probate, the venue of these probate proceedings, or the jurisdiction of the court -- unless such objections are filed on or before the date that is three months after the date of such service. The three-month time period may only be extended for estoppel based upon a misstatement by the personal representative regarding the time period within which an objection must be filed. The time period may not be extended for any other reason, including affirmative representation, failure to disclose information, or misconduct by the personal representative or any other person.

ALL OTHERS ARE NOTIFIED THAT objections that challenge: the will of the decedent admitted to probate, the venue of these probate proceedings, or the jurisdiction of the court -- are barred unless filed no later than the earlier of an entry of final discharge of the personal representatives, or one year after service of the notice of administration.

Decedent has no surviving spouse. The only children of decedent are the personal representatives identified above who are not under any legal impediment to so serve. The personal representatives waive any right they may have to file a petition for determination of exempt property under the provisions of Florida Statutes § 732.402 or to make any claim for an elective share.

Under certain circumstances and by failing to contest the will, the recipient of the notice of administration may be waiving his or her right to contest the validity of a trust or other writing incorporated by reference into a will.

The date of the first publication of the Notice of Administration occurred on April 22, 2022.
