Win or lose, Flagler Palm Coast's David Halliday is honored to be a finalist for the second time for the National Boys Track and Field Coach of the Year award.

The winner will be announced at the National High School Athletic Coaches Association's Coach of the Year banquet on June 26 in Bismarck, North Dakota.

Halliday is one of eight finalists for the award. He was nominated by the Florida Athletic Coaches Association to represent the state. He was also nominated by the FACA in 2018 and was a finalist that year too.

"It's always nice to be recognized," said Halliday, who has been a track and field and cross country coach for 30 years, including the past 20 at FPC. "If you get nominated representing the entire state of Florida that's a nice thing, and be picked as the final eight, that's pretty good. It's a tribute to the kids and coaches who work with me. Obviously, I'm not a one-man show. You've got to have great kids and great assistant coaches. It's nice to be recognized, but it takes a lot of people behind the scenes."

The award is based on career achievement, and Halliday has accomplished a great deal during his career. His boys track and field teams have won three state championships. He led FPC to state titles in 2007 and 2009 and also coached Lake City Columbia to a state championship in 2002. Since he was last nominated for the award, he has led the Bulldogs to a state runner-up finish in 2019 and a fourth-place finish in 2023. Halliday was inducted into the FACA Hall of Fame in 2014 and the Florida Track and Field Hall of Fame in 2017.

He considers one of the other finalists, Scott Christensen of Stillwater High in Minnesota, as a mentor.

"When I got my USA Track and Field Level 2 Coaching Certification in 1998, he was one of the instructors," Halliday said. "He invited me in 2014 to speak to the Minnesota coaches association, and he spoke in Florida in 2016 and 2020." Halliday will be one of the speakers at the week-long coaches convention in Bismarck.

"If you're one of Coach of the Year finalists you can speak," he said. "That's always fun, sharing with other coaches."

Halliday is a graduate of Seabreeze High School and the University of Florida, and before moving to Flagler County, he earned his master's degree in sports management at Florida State while his wife, Kim Halliday — who is Flagler Schools'

COACH OF YEAR FINALISTS

The eight finalists for the 2024 NHSACA Boys Track and of Coach of the Year award:

- David Halliday, FPC, Florida
- Josh Allmaras, Kindred High, North Dakota
- Shane Baltz, Senatobia High, Mississippi
- Scott Christensen, Stillwater High, Minnesota
- Tim Daggert, Classicao Academy, Colorado
- Dave Sellon, Fremont High, Nebraska
- Rob Stanton, Billings West High, Montana
- Clinton Tabb, Pennsauken, New Jersey

director of Exceptional Student Education — was earning her PhD.

"He's one of the best coaches I've seen in the state of Florida in any sport," FPC Principal Bobby Bossardet said, noting that Halliday's athletes are as accomplished in the classroom as they are on the track.

"At the track and field banquet there were a number of kids with GPAs above 3.0, 4.0 and 5.0," Bossardet said. "That's exactly what you want in a head coach. He cares about his kids and holds them to a high standard academically."

FPC wrestlers win freestyle titles

Flagler Palm Coast wrestling coach David Bossardet doesn't want Joslyn Johnson to worry about cutting weight. The high school girls state champion cut a lot of weight to stay at 100 pounds during the season, Bossardet said.

So, Johnson has jumped up to the 115-pound class this spring. In her fourth tournament in that weight class, she won the junior title at the Florida Amateur Wrestling Association Freestyle State Championships on June 1 at the Silver Spurs Arena in Kissimmee.

Johnson beat another state champ in the title match, winning by technical fall over Matanzas' Mariah Mills.

"Mariah is one of the best in the country," Bossardet said. "Joslyn won that match that day, but it's very important we keep things in perspective. Mariah Mills is as tough as they come. And we better be ready if we wrestle her again."

FPC's Alisha Vilar also won a title at the FAWA Freestyle State Championships. Vilar won the 145-pound class in the 16U division. Kevin McLean, who will be a freshman at FPC in August, placed third at 113 pounds in the boys 16U division.

Johnson, who is currently ranked 27th in the nation at 100 pounds, qualified for the Nationals in Fargo, North Dakota, in July. Mills, who won the 107-pound title in April at the NHSACA High School Nationals in Virginia Beach, will also be at Fargo. Mills is ranked 13th nationally at 110 pounds.

Johnson avenged a loss earlier this spring to South Dade's Beyonce Espinosa. She won by technical fall over Espinosa to advance to the final against Mills.

Johnson, who will be a junior in August, has been adjusting to the 115-pound weight class, Bossardet said.

"It's a big jump from 100 to 115," he said. "You have to make some adjustments and I think she's been doing that. We've spent a lot of time in the weight room, and we want Joslyn focusing on getting stronger and getting better technically rather than losing weight."

Vilar, an incoming sophomore, won her second tournament of the spring.

"She's still relatively new to the sport," Bossardet said. "But she continues to get better every time she steps onto the mat."

As an eighth grader, McLean wrestled for St. Johns Country Day and placed third at the Class 1A state championships at 106 pounds.

Bulldogs' signees

FPC had another athletic celebration before the end of the school year as 10 athletes signed national letters of intent to continue their athletic careers in college.

The signees were:

- Sidney Vinnick — Cheerleading (Florida Atlantic University)
- Alyssia Ray — Cheerleading (Austin Peay University)
- Gwen Vargas — Lacrosse (St. Thomas University)
- Toryion Stallings — Wrestling (Northeastern Oklahoma A&M; College)
- Kelton Howard — Wrestling (Neosho Community College)

- Lily Puritis — Volleyball (Coker University)
- Brandon Calidonio — Lacrosse (Wingate University)
- Hayden Herndon — Cross Country (Daytona State College)
- Kaitlyn Holley — Soccer (Webber International University)
- Ethan Laupepa — Wrestling (Northeastern Oklahoma A&M; College)
