WHEREAS, the Mortgage was insured by the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development (the Secretary) pursuant to the National Housing Act for the purpose of providing single family housing; and

WHEREAS, the Mortgage is now owned by the Secretary, pursuant to an assignment dated September 5, 2018, and recorded on November 5, 2018, in Book 7618, Page 3402, [as Instrument Number 2018222700], in the Office of the Clerk of Court, Volusia County, Florida; and

WHEREAS, a default has been made in the covenants and conditions of the Mortgage in that the Borrower, JOANNE WOODS, has died and the Property is not the principal residence of at least one surviving borrower, and the outstanding balance remains wholly unpaid as of the date of this notice, and no payment has been made sufficient to restore the loan to currency; and

WHEREAS, the entire amount delinquent as of September 25, 2024 is $116,936.02; and

WHEREAS, by virtue of this default, the Secretary has declared the entire amount of the indebtedness secured by the Mortgage to be immediately due and payable;

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to powers vested in me by the Single Family Mortgage Foreclosure Act of 1994, 12 U.S.C. 3751 et seq., by 24 CFR part 27, subpart B, and by the Secretary's designation of me as Foreclosure Commissioner, recorded on April 18, 2024 in Book 8545, Page 2600 [as Instrument No. 2024075814], in the Office of the Clerk of Court, Volusia County, Florida, notice is hereby given that on December 6, 2024 at 12:00 p.m. local time, all real and personal property at or used in connection with the following described premises ("Property") will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder:

The Southerly three-fourths and five-tenths (43.5) feet of Lot Seventeen (17) of FRANK W. SAMS' SUBDIVISION according to the map or plat thereof as recorded in Plat Book Four (4), page Thirty (30) of the Public Records of Volusia County, Florida BEING the same property conveyed to Joanne Woods by Deed from Harry C. Bishop and May T. Bishop, dated July 8, 1974 and recorded July 16, 1974 at Book 1745, Page 1049.

Commonly known as: 431 Sheldon Street, New Smyrna Beach, Florida 32168 The sale will be held at front steps of the Volusia County Clerk of the Circuit Court Courthouse at 101 N. Alabama Ave., DeLand, FL 32724.

The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development will bid $120,967.31.

There will be no proration of taxes, rents or other income or liabilities, except that the purchaser will pay, at or before closing, his prorata share of any real estate taxes that have been paid by the Secretary to the date of the Foreclosure sale.

When making their bids, all bidders except the Secretary must submit a deposit totaling $12,096.73 [10% of the Secretary's bid] in the form of a certified check or cashier's check made out to the Secretary of HUD. A deposit need not accompany each oral bid. If the successful bid is oral, a deposit of $12,096.73 must be presented before the bidding is closed. The deposit is nonrefundable. The remainder of the purchase price must be delivered within 30 days of the sale or at such other time as the Secretary may determine for good cause shown, time being of the essence. This amount, like the bid deposits, must be delivered in the form of a certified or cashier's check. If the Secretary is the highest bidder, he need not pay the bid amount in cash. The successful bidder will pay all conveying fees, all real estate and other taxes that are due on or after the delivery date of the remainder of the payment and all other costs associated with the transfer of title. At the conclusion of the sale, the deposits of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them.

The Secretary may grant an extension of time within which to deliver the remainder of the payment. All extensions will be for 15-day increments for a fee of $500.00, paid in advance. The extension fee shall be in the form of a certified or cashier's check made payable to the Secretary of HUD. If the high bidder closes the sale prior to the expiration of any extension period, the unused portion of the extension fee shall be applied toward the amount due.

If the high bidder is unable to close the sale within the required period, or within any extensions of time granted by the Secretary, the high bidder may be required to forfeit the cash deposit or, at the election of the foreclosure commissioner after consulting with the HUD representative, will be liable to HUD for any costs incurred as a result of such failure. The Commissioner may, at the direction of the HUD representative, offer the property to the second highest bidder for an amount equal to the highest price offered by that bidder.

There is no right of redemption, or right of possession based upon a right of redemption, in the mortgagor or others subsequent to a foreclosure completed pursuant to the Act. Therefore, the Foreclosure Commissioner will issue a Deed to the purchaser(s) upon receipt of the entire purchase price in accordance with the terms of the sale as provided herein. HUD does not guarantee that the property will be vacant.

The scheduled foreclosure sale shall be cancelled or adjourned if it is established, by documented written application of the mortgagor to the Foreclosure Commissioner not less than 3 days before the date of sale, or otherwise, that the default or defaults upon which the foreclosure is based did not exist at the time of service of this notice of default and foreclosure sale, or all amounts due under the mortgage agreement are tendered to the Foreclosure Commissioner, in the form of a certified or cashier's check payable to the Secretary of HUD, before public auction of the property is completed.

The amount that must be paid if the mortgage is to be reinstated prior to the scheduled sale is $116,936.02 as of September 25, 2024, plus all other amounts that would be due under the mortgage agreement if payments under the mortgage had not been accelerated, advertising costs and postage expenses incurred in giving notice, mileage by the most reasonable road distance for posting notices and for the Foreclosure Commissioner's attendance at the sale, reasonable and customary costs incurred for title and lien record searches, the necessary out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Foreclosure Commissioner for recording documents, a commission for the Foreclosure Commissioner, and all other costs incurred in connection with the foreclosure prior to reinstatement.

Tender of payment by certified or cashier's check or application for cancellation of the foreclosure sale shall be submitted to the address of the Foreclosure Commissioner provided below. # Free dirt? ‘Real solutions’ needed on drainage

New program would limit each resident to 5 cubic yards of dirt per resident and residents would also be required to move and place the dirt themselves.

SIERRA WILLIAMS
STAFF WRITER

Palm Coast could use repurposed dirt to help city residents struggling with drainage issues.

The idea stems from the city’s Residential Drainage Advisory Committee, which established in February by the Palm Coast City Council. The committee was formed in response to an outcry from Palm Coast residents who said neighboring new build homes that were built higher than their own was causing flooding on their properties.

The dirt would be cleaned, screened surplus dirt from various city projects, which can then be used by residents “to make improvements on their private properties,” city documents state.

“We’re not certain that there’s going to be a big demand for this, but at least we wanted to put the ask through to you,” Donna Stancel said, the committee chair.

This program would limit each resident to 5 cubic yards of dirt. Deputy Stormwater Director Lynn Stevens said that amount of dirt could easily be loaded into the back of a pickup truck for transport.

Residents would also be required to move the dirt themselves, both transporting it to their homes and placing it in their yards, Stevens said. And if they need machinery to place the dirt, those residents would be required to get a city permit for regrading. A lot regrading permit could cost $82, according to the city’s website.

The committee’s proposed solution is not one-size fits-all, Stancel acknowledged. For one, the dirt would legally

Palm Coast resident Jeremy Davis is one of many residents who says he has drainage issues because a neighboring home was built higher than his own. Image screenshot from Palm Coast City Council livestream

“That’s not going to help me. This is a waste of my time.”

JEREMY DAVIS, Palm Coast resident

Davis has been one of the council’s most vocal critics on how the council and city has responded to residents’ drainage issues. He has told his story multiple times: Ahouse was built in the empty lot next to his at a much higher height and since then, he said he has had water coming on to his property and even in his home that was never there before.

Davis called the 5 cubic yards offered “hilarious.” “That’s not going to help me,” Davis said. “This is a waste of my time.”

Davis said it would be equally unfair for residents like himself to be required to pay for a permit to fix a problem caused by city staff and builders approving a home built higher than existing homes.

“Come up with real solutions,” Davis said.

While the council agreed this was a good first step, Danko said he hopes the committee continues looking for more solutions.

“I think some of these homes are going to require a much bigger fix,” Danko said. “An expensive fix, probably, but we just can’t let people hang out there.”

Stancel and Stevens said the committee has been working on educating residents on what programs are available to help homeowners, like the county’s and city’s Community Development Block Grant programs. These programs do have limited funding, though, as well as income and other restrictions.

“We’re still looking for other solutions, but this is what we have so far,” Stancel said.

advisory committee to begin brainstorming solutions to help impacted residents.

At the same time, the city’s building and stormwater departments made several changes to the city’s technical manual. Previously, the city did not have a height limit on how high the new, infill-lot homes could be built, just that they had to be a minimum of 12 inches above the crown of the road.

The technical manual also did not have any regulation about how much higher than a neighboring home the new build could be.
