Why Public Notice Should Remain in Newspapers

Along with open meeting and freedom of information laws, public notice is an essential element of the three-legged stool of government transparency

This is not about “newspapers vs the internet”.

It’s newspapers and newspaper websites vs government websites and newspaper websites have a much larger audience. Moving notice from newspapers to government websites would reduce the presence of public notices on the internet

Requiring independent, third-party newspapers to ensure that public notices run in accordance with the law helps prevent government officials from hiding information

they would prefer the public not to see

Since the first U.S. Congress, public officials have understood that newspapers are the best medium to notify the public about official matters because they contain the essential elements of public notice:

Accessibility

Independence

Verifiability

Archivability

Publishing notices on the internet is neither cheap nor free

Newspapers remain the primary vehicle for public notice in all 50 states

Types Of Public Notices

What makes public notices in newspapers superior to other forms of notices?
Public notices in newspapers are serendipitous. When readers page through a newspaper, they will find important public notice information they otherwise would not find anywhere else.
Rarely do consumers specifically search online for public notices.

Q&A

Who benefits from legal notices?

You do. Legal notices are required because a government body or corporation wants to take action that can affect individuals and the public at large.

When the government is about to change your life, or your property or assets are about to be taken, public notices in newspapers serve to alert those affected.
