Hammock residents demand ‘fair, equitable’ tax for beach projects

No additional tax on The Hammock is being instituted for beach management for 2026, but could for future budgets.

SIERRA WILLIAMS
STAFF WRITER

Residents of The Hammock flooded the Flagler County Commission’s budget hearing on Sept. 11 after a confusing notice was sent to their doors.

The room was overfilled with people, to the extent that Commission Chair Andy Dance had to ask at least 30 people to leave the room to watch the meeting outside the commission chambers, just to comply with fire safety requirements.

The unincorporated area of Flagler County’s barrier island is facing a special assessment tax to help fund beach management.

The MSBU, or Municipal Service Benefit Unit, was formed in December 2024, but no money was levied for the MSBU for the 2026 budget, County Administrator Heidi Petito said. The notice sent to residents was to comply with state requirements when a special assessment is instituted.

By state statute, in order to keep the special assessment active, the county had to formally adopt an amount for the MSBU — $0, in this case.

Petito said the county is currently working on a formal analysis to determine how to apportion the MSBU, which will decide how much each property owner will pay.

“It’s not ever going to be an open-ended checkbook,” Petito said. For the 2026 budget, she said: “It is zero, it’s not going to change a month from now, it’s not going to change anytime before our next budget next year.”

Multiple residents said they were concerned the MSBU would be used as a “blank check” to fund the majority of the beach management program.

“I’m willing to pay my share,” Hammock resident Barbara Patel said. “I’m OK with a special assessment, as long as it’s reasonable, equitable and taxed. To make it equitable, I strongly encourage you to pass the half-cent sale tax, because, as it’s been said before, everybody in Flagler County benefits from the high quality of our beaches.”

The beach maintenance program was always intended to be funded through a mix of funding sources, including an MSBU, grants, sales tax, the county’s tourism bed tax and dedicated millage.

Originally, Petito said, the county considered levying a special assessment for the whole county to help fund the beach management program. But the county legally cannot levy in the cities without the support and approval of those municipalities.

In turn, though, the MSBU in The Hammock area will only fund renourishment for the beaches in the unincorporated area that pays for it. When the county’s study is finalized and an apportionment is determined, the MSBU will include funding for nourishment, signage, dune fencing and programs like dune monitoring.

The MSBU also is not permanent, Dance said; it must be renewed annually.

Despite this information, residents wanted to know: Why hasn’t the county looked at other options, like more federal or state funding, or grants? And what about using the half-cent sales tax?

The fact is, the county has looked at its options over the last several years.

“We’re maximizing every available funding formula we can get from the state, from the federal government,” Dance said.

But Commissioners Kim Carney, Leann Pennington and Pam Richardson have said in the past they have concerns about the half-cent sales tax, which is why the item has not come to a vote on the commission. To levy a half-cent tax would need a supermajority — or four out of five — vote to pass.

Instead of a board vote, at a recent joint meeting with other municipalities, the Flagler County Commission floated the idea of holding a referendum vote for a half-

“I’m OK with a special assessment, as long as it’s reasonable, equitable and taxed. To make it equitable, I strongly encourage you to pass the half-cent sale tax, because, as it’s been said before, everybody in Flagler County benefits from the high quality of our beaches.”

BARBARA PATEL,
resident of The Hammock

cent sales tax. Pennington said her concern was primarily in how future boards would use the funding. According to law, the current board could dedicate the funding to beach management, but future boards are not obligated to follow that.

“You can’t assume that the half-cent would be used just for the beach,” Pennington said.

But, Dance pointed out, based on the show of force tonight from the public, it’s likely that “future boards are going to listen to the same people that are here and would abide probably by those same plans.”

The Hammock residents in attendance all had the same thing to say: Everyone in the county should pay their share to support the beach.

“Everybody has access to it,” resident Don Albertson said, supporting a half-cent sales tax, “and I think the only fair way is to tax everybody.”

Commissioner Greg Hansen — who has been a driving force behind funding the beach renourishment program — said the half-cent is the “fair and elegant” solution to the funding problem.

“Further down the road, commissions that come after us are going to feel the same way,” Hansen said. “It’s our duty as county commissioners to protect that beach. That’s our duty.”

County: One more year with Humane Society

Flagler County wants a seat on the FHS board and Level 2 background checks for animal control.

SIERRA WILLIAMS
STAFF WRITER

The Flagler County Commission has renewed its contract with the Flagler Humane Society for animal control, shelter and spay and neuter services.

But, the renewal comes with some changes, County Administrator Heidi Petito said. Those changes include adding one commissioner and one staff member to the FHS Board and two FHS Board members will be liaisons with the county. Those liaisons will meet monthly to review financial and animal intake reports, she said.

FHS has also agreed to conduct Level 2 background checks now on animal control officers, Petito said, and also will not accept anyone for employment or as a volunteer that has an animal cruelty conviction. In order to promote more transparency, the FHS will also provide case reports with the monthly case summary and calls for service.

Flagler County in turn will pay FHS $214,599 annually, up from $208,349 from the previous year, for animal control services. The contract also states the county will pay up to $106,000 — up from $90,000 in 2024 — for sheltering, spaying and neutering.

The county and Palm Coast formed a joint task force earlier in 2025 to pursue the county’s options for animal services following a storm of complaints from the public about FHS regarding overcrowding and transparency. The Flagler Commission approved the contract at its Sept. 15 meeting. The next joint task force meeting with Palm Coast about FHS and animal services will be held on Sept. 25.

Matanzas wins third straight, 36-14, vs. Jackson

Cole Walker and Wiley Conner each accounted for three touchdowns for the Pirates.

Matanzas football coach Matt Forrest has praised his team’s efficiency during its three-game winning streak.

In its 36-14 victory against Jackson High School in Jacksonville on Friday, Sept. 12, Matanzas converted nine of 11 third downs and scored touchdowns in all four trips to the red zone — the picture of efficiency.

On defense, the Pirates held Jackson to a 5-for-13 third-down conversion rate, intercepted two passes and recovered a fumble, to win the turnover margin 3-1, and produced two quarterback sacks and four tackles for loss.

Matanzas quarterback Cole Walker completed 21 of 29 passes for 215 yards with two touchdowns, and he also ran for a touchdown. It was the senior’s third straight game with over 200 yards passing. Andrew Bass caught eight passes for 96 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown reception. And Jordan Schendorf had five catches for 69 yards and also tossed a 2-point conversion pass to Thomas Larywon.

Jordan Schendorf caught five passes for 69 yards. Photos by Hannah Hodge Matanzas running back Wiley Conner (34) rushed for 85 yards and scored three touchdowns.

The Pirates (3-1) also ran for more than 100 yards with Wiley Conner rushing for 85 yards with two touchdowns and also catching a touchdown pass.

Rilee Roberts had both sacks. Jaden Dormevil returned a second-quarter interception 45 yards to the Tigers’ 16-yard line to set up Conner’s 9-yard touchdown run which put Matanzas up 21-6. Ladarien Baker intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter that also led to a Pirates touchdown.

“We’re solid offensively, defensively and on special teams,” Forrest said. “We’re able to execute and be efficient in all phases of the game.”

Forrest said he put too much on his players’ shoulders in the season-opener against Flagler Palm Coast. Since then, they have focused on what they do best, he said.

“The guys understand we’ll do whatever it takes to win the football game.”

MATT FORREST, Matanzas football coach

The Pirates have averaged just under 40 points per game since the 26-14 loss to the Bulldogs.

“I think the FPC game was the exception, not the rule,” Forrest said. “We’re a much better team than we showed. That was me putting too much pressure on them, trying to do too many things.”

Against Jackson, the Pirates slowed the game down after Tigers quarterback Jamarian Dixon scored his second touchdown with five seconds left in the first half. Dixon’s 26-yard scramble pulled Jackson (2-2) to within 21-12. In the second half, Matanzas outscored Jackson 15-2, holding the Tigers to a fourth-quarter safety.

“They had a really athletic quarterback. He was able to break big plays at any moment,” Forrest said. “Once we got the lead to two possessions we tried to take the air out of the ball and give our defense a break, because they were chasing that guy all night. By slowing down the game on offense, we were able to get the defense back to where it needed to be, and we were able to get some turnovers and stops and give the offense a short field.

“The guys understand we’ll do whatever it takes to win the football game,” Forrest said.

The Pirates are back home on Friday, Sept. 19, against Seabreeze (1-2). The Sandcrabs struggled in the second half of a 47-7 loss to Rockledge last week. After Seabreeze took a 7-6 halftime lead, the Raiders scored touchdowns on six straight second-half possessions.

Lake Brantley’s run-pass attack beats FPC

La’Darius Simmons scored the Bulldogs’ only touchdown on a 60-yard run.

BRENT WORONOFF
ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Lake Brantley’s Jackson Stecher is among the state’s top-rated dual-threat quarterbacks in the 2028 recruiting class. Flagler Palm Coast found out why.

The sophomore transfer from The Master’s Academy passed for 358 yards and two touchdowns and ran for 61 yards and two more scores to lead the undefeated Patriots to a 48-7 victory over the visiting Bulldogs on Friday, Sept. 12.

“Their quarterback is really, really good,” FPC coach Patrick Turner said. “He had two or three scrambles when our guys were in coverage, or just before he crossed the line, he’d connect with a receiver. He’s that good of a player.”

While Lake Brantley (4-0) seems set at quarterback for the next two-plus seasons, FPC (1-3) is still looking for consistency at the position. Senior La’Darius Simmons played extensively for the first time since injuring his ankle against Matanzas in the season-opener.

Senior Caden Burchfield is out for the season after tearing an ACL and fracturing a tibia in the Mainland game on Sept. 5. In three games for the Bulldogs, he passed for 353 yards and five touchdowns.

Simmons scored FPC’s only touchdown against the Patriots with a 60-yard run on the Bulldogs’ second possession. FPC was held to 157 yards of offense, including just 20 yards passing on 3 of 8 attempts.

“Ninety percent of our offense is an RPO (run-pass option),” Turner said. “We didn’t throw or we didn’t connect when the RPO was called for.”

The Bulldogs lost a fumble on their second snap from scrimmage, and the Patriots drove 32 yards for their first touchdown. They would score on all five of their first-half possessions to take a 35-7 lead. Stecher scored on runs of 3 and 9 yards and connected with the speedy Devon Washington on touchdown passes of 51 and 61 yards.

The Bulldogs were able to sack Stecher three times and had six total tackles for loss. Reagan Melland had a sack and shared another tackle for loss.

“We got a lot of pressure on the quarterback,” Turner said. “I think our defense just wore down. The score was bad, but I don’t think we played bad. Lake Brantley is a very improved team. As the season goes on, people are going to understand how good they are and how good they can be.”

The Bulldogs have a bye this week. They will try to snap their three-game losing streak on Sept. 26 in a District 2-7A game at home against University.

“We’re still only four games into the season. I think we haven’t tapped into our potential yet. We haven’t found our groove,” Turner said. “We’ve got to be more aggressive, practice better and be more disciplined.”

“Their quarterback is really, really good. He had two or three scrambles when our guys were in coverage.”

PATRICK TURNER, FPC football coach
